According to the usual terms and conditions:

The Artists, Exhibitors of artworks of art, have to contract an insurance for the selected artworks for any risks (fire, damages, losses, theft, etc...) and also to be covered with a respective civil liability insurance for any damages and/or accidents they may cause.

The Association organizing the « NICE AND PROVENCE ALPES COTE D'AZUR AREA INTERNATIONAL ARTS CONTEST » will in no case assume any responsibility for all and any damages which may be caused to the artworks during their carriage and this until the end of the exhibition and will also not assume any kind of responsibility for thefts, loss or damages caused to the exhibited artworks. The exhibiting artists who are not covered for above-mentioned risks are laid under the obligation to officially renounce to any claims whatever on or against « L'Aigle de Nice » organizing this exhibition and the Arts contest and obtain by written statement of their insurance company the same renouncement.

The exhibiting sculptors will have to equip their works so that they can be strongly fixed on a basement in order to avoid eventual risk of theft or breakage. Artists allow the « Aigle de Nice » organization to reproduce their works in all media, such as advertising posters, invitations, photos, videos, press reviews, and other.

The sculptors will have to equip, if necessary, a base for their works.

The « Aigle de Nice » organization will remain the supreme owner of all decisions, responsibilities and advertising regarding the organization of the « Aigle de Nice » Arts Contest.

Artists allow exhibitors the Eagle Nice to reproduce their works in all media advertising posters, invitations, photos, videos, press reviews, and more.

IMPORTANT:

The paintings that are not taken back by the artists at the end of the Arts Contest will be stored in a secure warehouse which have a cost of 10 € per painting and 20€ per sculpture and per month of storage.
